ALBANY TO HEAR BOYS TOWN FOUNDER

Plans were today completed to handle a capacity crowd at the High School Auditorium Monday evening (November 27) on the occasion of a visit of the Rt. Rev. E. J. Flanagan, nationally known as Father Flanagan, founder of Boys Town.

The address of Father Flanagan, sponsored by the local Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, is scheduled to start promptly at 8 p. m. According to Clyde T. Gordon, chairman of the committee in charge, the affair is open to all youth, civic, fraternal and religious organizations and the general public. He also warned local citizens to come early to insure seating accommodations. No admission will be charged.

The reception will be opened by Mayor Bert Hill with an official welcoming to the City of Albany and will be followed by the introduction of Father Flanagan by Thomas Gosdard, Jr., vice-president of the State Order of Eagles. A short musical program has been arranged consisting of numbers by the high school and Glee Club. Albany High School football team members will act as ushers. George Glavinovich, vice-president of the local Aerie, will act as master of ceremonies.

Understanding, patience and the desire to assist homeless boys to a fruitful living, to their rightful place in the scheme of life... these inspired Father Flanagan's dream of Boys Town. Because Father Flanagan, himself, had the advantages of a good home, devout parents and sound moral upbringing, he was inspired to give these advantages to boys less fortunate than he. He was instrumental in establishing the Boy Scout movement in Omaha and as president of the Omaha Welfare Board for 10 years he has closely observed the needs of homeless boys. Further, as a member of the Catholic Child Welfare Board of Omaha and as a member of the Children's Committee of the National Conference of Catholic Charities, his observations more than ever convinced him of the need of what is now known as Boys Town. While the world has widely honored this distinguished humanitarian, he experiences his greatest satisfaction in the smile of the homeless boy who found comfort and opportunity at Boys Town.

Boys Town is a real village, located 11 miles outside the limits of Omaha, Nebraska. Incorporated in 1936, the town enjoys and provides all the governmental functions of any village in the state of Nebraska, but unlike other villages it receives no financial support from its citizenry, who of course, are the boys with no resources. Nor does Boys Town receive any direct aid from Federal or state governments, from the Community Chest or from any Church. The town is supported entirely by voluntary contributions from people

Abatement Dist. Request Refused

Verbal opinions were tossed 'hither and yon' at the Monday evening session of Albany's City Council when an answer was given as to whether or not Albany would join Alameda County in the Mosquito Abatement District. The request to join other county towns and cities in this district was brought before the council a week ago by Mrs. Kathie Zahn who regards "the mosquito as a menace to public health," according to the report in last week's Times.

Mrs. Zahn requested that the council or a citizens committee circulate petitions. Councilmembers opinions were—"Naturally, a governmental unit does not engage in such activities, but, in refusing the request, the Council made it clear that if a sufficient number of signatures was obtained upon a petition to raise the Tax rate to support this request, the matter would be open for debate."

However, in view of reports received by them, the council felt that the City was not, to any measured extent, a breeding place for mosquitoes, in spite of the presence of the migrant variety during the season; and as all likely breeding places were treated by the city itself during the summer months, the city was amply protected from self-infestation without spending any more money on outside talent unless it was the expressed desire of the majority of the tax payers themselves.

'Finish the Fight With War Bonds' Is Local Slogan

"Your assistance is needed and the most important job now for the people at home is to make the Sixth War Loan a success. To make sure of Final victory we must redouble and sustain our efforts, here and everywhere."

"The money must be raised and our men on all the fronts depend upon you. Next to our military operations, the War Bond program is the most vital part of our war effort."

"On behalf of your sons, brothers, husbands and friends in this great war theater, I urge you to do your part to see that the Sixth War Loan is vastly oversubscribed."

Inspired by the above message of General Dwight Eisenhower, supreme commander, Allied Expeditionary Forces, Albany citizens were off to a flying start in the Sixth War Loan campaign, with members of the local War Finance Committee set for an "all out" drive to put the city over the top early in the drive. Adopting the slogan "Finish the Fight With War Bonds," the committee is exerting every effort in this, possibly the most vital, war loan campaign of all.

Opening gun in this drive, designed to put home front dollars into the fight to defeat Hitler and Hirohito, will be the Sixth Premiere Bond Show, scheduled for the Albany Theatre, Wednesday night, December 6. This show, which is a "fixture" in local Bond campaigns will feature the first run picture "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," a comedy starring Cornelia Otis Skinner, noted stage personage, new to theatre goers and the daughter of the late Otis Skinner, for 30 years the featured star of Kismet. Co-starred are Gail Russell, Charles Ruggles and Dorothy Gish.

A complete stage show will be presented together with the orchestra from the Naval Landing Force Equipment Depot as well as their Hill Billy band. Admission will be by purchase of War Bonds only and the four organizations working on the program—Exchange Club, Legion, Eagles and Lions Clubs—are now lining up entertainment features to make this event the biggest and best ever.

Tickets may be obtained now with Bond purchases at the Post Office, Albany Theatre, Albany Federal Savings and Loan Association, Mechanics Bank and the Bank of America. Bond purchasers are urged to ask for their tickets at the time they purchase Bonds in order to insure accommodations. All bonds purchased at these established agencies as well as those purchased in the house to house campaign during November 20 and December 6 will be entitled to tickets to the affair.

Albany Purchases New Jail Cells

At public auction last week City Engineer Frank Grey and Police Chief Stanley Williams purchased Berkeley's old jail quarters for Albany. Reported price of the sale was $400.

Work of removing the bars, bunks, sanitary facilities and other portions of the jail will be done at the expense of Albany. Officials stated work should be started within the next few weeks.

According to Chief Williams purchase of the two cells will eliminate many inconveniences now experienced in the local bastille. "With the growth of population in Albany, it has been necessary many times to ask El Cerrito to house women prisoners for us when we have had both sexes in custody," the chief explained. "The purchase of the two cells will make it possible for us to maintain separate quarters for women."

The two cells will be placed in the garage space in the rear of the police and fire departments which now contains only one locked and barred room.

ARMY- NAVY SHOW

Hundreds of picked troops, trained to combat edge, who will take part in the spectacular free Army-Navy War Show, "East Bay Attacks," at Berkeley Stadium the nights of December 8, 9 and 10, will begin arriving in Berkeley on November 28 to start rehearsals for the huge battle action spectacle.

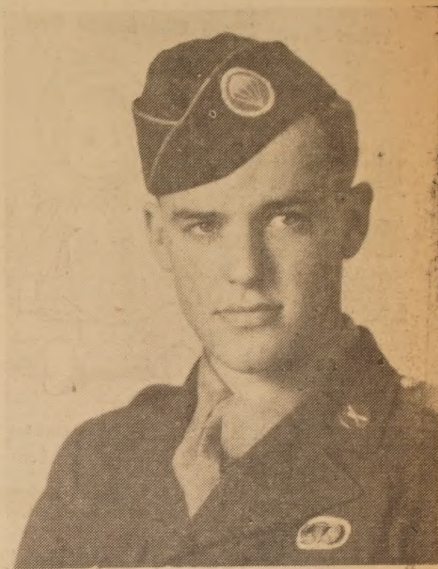

The troops are the 306th A and B Batteries from Camp Haan and are under the command of Captain Clifford Bevington.

The heavy combat vehicles and equipment which will appear in the War Show, including 30-ton medium tanks, light tanks, armored cars, half-tracks, and jeeps, will arrive at the same time.

The huge Army-Navy War Show stands as a thrilling, explosive, dramatic battle action spectacle, Lt. Col. Clifford W. Macfarlane, producer of the production, stated. The largest military presentation ever staged in the Bay Area, it will be free to the public, he said. Admission will be by ticket, details of free ticket distribution to be announced soon.

The main theme of the Army-Navy War Show will be, "Well Done, East Bay—Stay on the Job" (Continued on Page 5)

ALBANY HERO MAKES SUPREME SACRIFICE

Pfc. Godfrey Jon Hanson, 20, with captured on the Cherbourg Peninsula the first division of United States Paratroopers, died September 19, of wounds received in action on September 18, at Aachen, Holland, according to word received from the War Department by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hanson of 1345 Washington Street, Albany.

Born in Albany on January 16, 1924, Jon graduated from Marin School in 1937 and from Albany High School in 1942. He enlisted in the Paratroopers in August, 1942, and won his wings at Fort Benning, Georgia, in January, 1943. After a brief visit home a year ago, he was sent to England where he spent 15 months in combat training. Jon was with the Hundred and First Air Borne Division which made the famous jump in the review of American Paratroopers by General Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill in London, which was filmed and shown in American newsreels last spring.

Unselfishly devoted to his country, Hanson sent home $1000, saved from his Army pay to buy a War Bond. He was the first Albany boy in the armed forces to purchase a Bond in the Third War Loan Drive.

On D-Day Jon Hanson was among the earliest Paratroopers to make a landing on the Continent. He was and remained a German prisoner of war for several days, taking care of wounded Americans, under orders of his captors. When the American captured the hospital where he was held, Jon was sent back to England to recuperate. There he conducted a single-handed campaign for blood donors by writing to his many friends here of the miracles that he had seen performed on the field through the use of blood plasma, and urging them to contribute to the Blood Bank.

Jon is the author of several sketches and stories about Dutch Paratroopers which are now in the process of publication. His poem "Clouds," written for his mother on last Easter Sunday was published in the Times on April 29.

Besides his father, Godfrey Hanson, past commander of Albany Legion Post 292, and his mother, "Tudy" Hanson, the distinguished soldier is survived by three brothers, Harry, Arnold Craig of the U. S. Army Photographic Division, and two younger brothers, "Bill," a senior at Albany High School and Tommy Hanson, aged 14, and many friends in Albany and England.

The following lines were written by Sophie Ryan, instructor in journalism at Albany High School in

NAVY WANTS PICTURES

By WALTER HOLLAND
The Naval Intelligence Department of the 12th Naval District wants information, photographs and snap shots of anything pertaining to the territory occupied by the Japs: China, Burma, Malaya, The Netherlands East Indies, Manchuria, Korea, Japan and the Philippine Islands.

To attain the pictures or information any citizen of Albany may have about the Far East, the Navy Department has supplied Albany Post 292 with questionnaires which will be given to all who have information or pictures the Navy Department desires for help in the Far East Campaigns. These questionnaires can be secured by Post Card or letter request from W. L. Holland, 7144 Schmidt Lane, El Cerrito, Calif. or telephone LAnd. 5-4392.

The Navy places emphasis on photographs which are needed at once, but advise Albany Post if, in the course of the survey for pictures we discover persons in the community who have lived or traveled in Japanese dominated territories but who do not have photographs the Navy will appreciate giving such persons a questionnaire also, to be forwarded as soon as possible, so that the Navy will have a record of their names and can catalogue such information they may have in regard to Jap held territory, for example: "In a recent south Pacific landing a single snap shot provided the Navy by a private citizen was directly responsible for the saving the lives of hundreds of our men engaged in the assault."

For those who wish to contact the Navy direct write Lt. Goddard, 717 Market Street, San Francisco, Calif.

Because of the vital need for pictures and information the Navy hopes that Albany Post will have a response from every individual in the Community who has been in the Far East.

Postpone Meeting

Plans for the formation of Albany's new Cub Pack are taking shape rapidly, and at a meeting of the committee last week it was decided to change the date of the first parents' gathering. Due to the announcement that Father Flanagan is to speak in Albany on November 27, the parents' meeting has been postponed until December 4.

Parents of prospective Cubs are asked to telephone LAndscape 5-1016 or LAndscape 5-4364 and report names and addresses so that letters of information may be sent. A limited number can be included in the new Pack and preference will be made in the order of listing.

News of Fighters

With the Americal Division Somewhere in Southwest Pacific—From captain to sergeant would be a hell of reverse promotion for most anybody. Not so Klaus Martens. He's a buck sergeant in this crack infantry division, and proud of it. Klaus used to be a captain—a cadet captain—in a German reserve unit at one time.

No home front commando, Klaus asked for combat, and got it. Right now, he's sweating it out on a Jap-infested Southwest Pacific island, and as these lines are written he's in the thick of a roadblock action which has netted close to 300 Nips deep inside enemy lines.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand C. Martens of 730 Santa Fe Ave., the 20-year old infantryman was a student at the University of California when he got into the Enlisted Reserve Corps, going on active duty in March of '43.

Klaus is a well-built, handsome fellow with definite ideas on what should be done about post-war Germany. Coming from an articulate, intelligent young man who has lived in the Fatherland and served under the German flag, his remarks carry weight. Here are his principal points:

1. We should make definite promises to Germany, and these promises should be carried out precisely so that the German people will have faith in our post-war operations.

2. A program of re-education must be established for the German youth. This must include rebuilding of the school system and should be maintained just as liberally as U. S. schools.

3. The United States must maintain an army of occupation in Germany, and it must remain there until we are certain there is no possible chance for reactionary elements to cause trouble for anyone.

4. It will be a grave responsibility to take care of beaten Germany in the matter of food, fuel and clothing, for these three essentials will be terribly lacking in the post-Hitler era.

Sergeant Martens, who was born at Breslau in '24, made a previous trip to the U. S. at the age of ten, with his parents. He stayed in this country four years and learned English fluently.

Returning to Germany, he became a cadet at a military gymnasium in the Rhineland. Here he absorbed military training ranging from the foot-soldier's problems to the fine arts of flying and navigation. By the time he got into winter maneuvers in '38, he was a cadet captain. Previously, he had traveled in Poland, England, Ire-

Police Find "Lost" Man

The identity of an 82-year-old man found wandering around the streets of Albany is being sought by police, as the man, apparently a victim of partial amnesia, expressed the belief that he is in the vicinity of Buffalo, New York.

According to Police Officer James McLeod, he found the elderly man at the corner of Carmel and Washington Avenues, about 6 a. m. Monday. Under questioning he replied that his name is Calogero Lipani, a Sicilian by birth, who came to the United States in 1891. At the station, police examining his effects found a baggage check for a trip from Chicago to Los Angeles and a Buffalo street car token. They are checking with Los Angeles police to trace the baggage check. Also found was $59 in cash which the man carried in a spectacle case in his pocket.

Police description of the unknown guest is as follows: Five feet, 3 inches tall, weighing about 100 pounds. He has gray hair, brown eyes and walks with a cane. He was dressed in blue trousers and coat, a white flannel shirt, brown cap with ear flaps and black shoes.

Playgrounds to Provide Holiday Activities

To provide leisure time activities during the Thanksgiving holidays Superintendent of Recreation Edwin S. Howell stated that Memorial and Terrace Parks Playgrounds will be open daily Wednesday to Sunday, from 9:30 to 5:30. Marin and Cornell Schools playgrounds will provide activities for children Wednesday, Friday and Saturday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Codornices Community Center Building, open daily from 9 a. m. to 11 p. m. Howell stated that special events to take place during the five-day holiday vacation period will include the annual "touch" football game between Cornell and Marin Schools on Friday, November 24, at 10 a. m. in Memorial Park.

Teenagers of Codornices will hold their informal dance on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Community Building.

A special invitation has been extended the adults and children to watch the National A. A. U. 30 Kilo (18.65 miles) championship run, sponsored by the Berkeley Junior Chamber of Commerce, as the runners travel through Albany. The meet starts at approximately 10 a. m. and the runners will travel north on San Pablo Avenue to Solano and east on Solano Avenue to The Alameda, at approximately 10:30 a. m. this Sunday, November 26.

He finally was able to get out of Germany in the summer of '39; he just missed passage on the Bremen, and sailed on the Europia instead. He and his parents settled in California, where he finished high school at Albany, then enrolled in the University of California where he majored in political and military science. On the side, he went in for fencing and skiing.

The only paradox that bothers him a bit is the fact that, instead of being able to put his European knowledge to use in the latter theater, he is helping fight a war against the Nips in some of the worst jungle in the world. He's doing all right, too.

Pocatello Army Air Field, Idaho. —Second Lieutenant Richard A. Hickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hickman of 914 Ventura Ave., is completing his training at this fighter pilot training field of the Second Army Air Force.

In the near future he will go overseas to a combat area to take his part in the defeat of the enemy.

For three days before plans of his fighter squadron were able to use the airstrip at Peleliu, Palau Islands, Marin Staff Sergeant Boyd A. Groat, 21, formerly of 1505 Albany Terrace, an aviation parachute rigger, carried ammunition and water to front line troops in the battle for "Bloody Nose Ridge."

"I landed on the second day," he said, "and as soon as I hit the beach they loaded me down with ammunition and told me to take it up front. I hauled ammo all that day, slept in an improvised foxhole on the beach that night, and started carrying water the next morning. Those men up on the front line were really thirsty."

A 1941 graduate of Albany High School, Groat enlisted last year in January. He is the son of Mrs. Harry Mills of San Francisco.

With U. S. Army Forces in New Caledonia—Corporal William R. Theilacker, the son of Mrs. Marie Theilacker, 710 Cornell Avenue, has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal for exemplary behavior and efficiency as a clerk-typist in the Engineer Supply section of the South Pacific Base Command Headquarters.

With Allied might pouring into the Pacific in ever-increasing quantities, much of it through South Pacific bases commanded by Major General Frederick Gilbreath, the efficiency of each man in the headquarters helps fighting forces gain island stepping-stones toward the Japanese mainland.

Corp. Theilacker entered the Army in May, 1943, received basic training at Camp Sibert, Alabama, and attended Adjutant General school at Mississippi Southern College, at Hattiesburg. He came overseas in February, 1944.

Before entering the Army he worked for B. F. McDonald Co., manufacturers of personal safety appliances and equipment in San Francisco.

"Going My Way"
Now at Albany
Wednesday (November 22) is the last showing of the great American picture "Going My Way," starring Bing Crosby and Rise Stevens.
The Thanksgiving matinee will usher in the Bette Davis picture "Mr.
Skeffington" with Claude Rains in the supporting role. In the Skeffing-
entire range of her dramatic accomplishments and in this story she is given ample opportunity to display every emotion. On the same bill is the comedy "Alergie To Love," which promises to be good holiday relaxation.
Sunday brings fun and laughter to the Albany when America's zaniest team Abbott and Costello present "In Society." The companion picture will be "Princess O'Rourke" with Olivia
De Havilland and Robert Cummings.
The Albany is preparing for the capacity audience which is expected to fill the theatre Wednesday, De-

Boys Town
in every walk of life. Boys Town is governed by its own boy mayor and six boy commissioners, all elected by the boys themselves.
"There is no such thing as a bad boy." On this creed, voiced by Father Flanagan, Boys Town was founded. Twenty-seven years of Boys Town experience proves its truth. From the very first homeless boys who entered the town's gates have responded to its care and guidance with appreciation for law and order.

Even Ducks
Complain About
Wet Weather
Allany police wondered last week about complaints of rainy weather—"when it is too wet out for ducks," maybe some people are right.
Reports were received at the station from two residents that birds were forcing themselves into the warm hospitality of their homes and refusing to leave.
Mrs. LeRoy King, Jr., 514 Santa Fe Avenue, was startled by a crash against the window-screen of her bedroom last Saturday. Mr. King, going into the yard to investigate, found a very wet and very tired Muscovy duck waddling around outside the window.
He brought the bird in the house and set it before the fire. After a short time his feathered guest, in revived spirits, began quacking for a free meal. Being a large duck his requirements were six pounds of canary seed which the Kings kept for a household pet.
According to King, the duck is very much at home, following members of the house around and demanding more food. Very tame, the duck is evidently someone's pet and the Kings hope the owner claims him before he "eats his hosts out of house and home."
A second bird, a carrier pigeon, was discovered seeking shelter at the Standard Oil Company's wharf at Point Orient by V. F. Bennett of 916 Evelyn Avenue. The pigeon, Bennett said, had been wandering around the wharf. The bird allowed

"Wayne's" Opens
Thanksgiving Day
With a special Thanksgiving dinner planned for their opening Thursday, November 23, Wayne and Carmen Leach will appear as the new owners of the former Lorenzo Spaghetti House, 902 San Pablo Avenue. The restaurant's new name will be "Wayne's—the Spot—Let's Eat," and will appear in a bright new Neon sign as soon as it is possible to obtain the attractively designed sign.
From the menu advertised in today's Times customers should find "savory thoughts" for a Thanksgiving dinner.

Mrs. G. Ramsay Seriously Ill
After undergoing a number of serious operations Mrs. George Ramsay of 1327 Northside Avenue, Berkeley, is reported to be still critically ill. Mrs. Ramsey lived for many years in Allany prior to moving into Berkeley and her many friends here are wishing for a speedy recovery.

himself to be picked up by Bennett who took him home and fed him. Now he's enjoying the hospitality of the Bennett home and board.
The pigeon has an identification band on his leg bearing the number AU-44-F-16185. If anyone knows to whom the bird belongs the Bennetts would appreciate a call at Landscape 5-6905. His guest has an expensive appetite also.

Next time you hear a Southern Pacific train whistle in the night, think of it as something more than a lonely, haunting sound. It is a reassuring sound—a promise that even while you sleep, the war trains are rolling. It's the confident voice of an industry that's doing the biggest job in its history, and will be in there pitching long after the war is over.
Wouldn't you like to know the language of the train whistles? Below we show you:

What S. P. train whistles mean

We haven't room to explain all the whistles, but here are the commonest ones. The "o" stands for a short sound, the dash means a longer sound.

■■■■ Warning whistle when train is approaching a highway crossing.

■■■■ When train is running, this means it will stop at next station, which is not a regular stop. If train is standing still, this signal warns that it is about to back up.

■■ One long whistle is sounded a mile before train reaches stations, railroad crossings, drawbridges, etc.

■■■■ Signal for brakeman to protect rear of train. He must go down the track with necessary flagman's signals.

■■■■ Signal for brakeman to protect front of train.

■■■■ This signal orders brakeman to return from the west.

■■■■ This signal recalls brakeman from the east.

■■ This tells other trains that a second section is following.

■■ This is the engineer's answer to most signals from other trains.

■■■■■■ A succession of short sounds is a warning to persons or livestock on the track.

S. P.
The friendly Southern Pacific

Army-Navy Show Handy with tools?

and Finish the Job." The production is presented as a tribute from the Army and Navy to the war workers of the Bay area for outstanding productive effort thus far and as a dramatic reminder that the increasing tempo of the war in the Pacific will call for even greater production from West Coast war industries and essential civilian services.

One of the highlights of the Army-Navy War Show will be the most realistic battle action ever seen outside an actual battle zone. The entire field at the Stadium will be transformed into a South Pacific jungle setting, over which hundreds of combat-trained troops will advance in a victorious assault on an enemy strongpoint. Almost every weapon used by our armed forces against the Japs will be seen in action during the battle including tanks, armored cars, flame-throwers, bazookas and land mines.

This job may be up your alley

This is a good job. And a bit unusual in many ways because it's got just a bit more excitement and real he-man's "stuff" to it than most jobs. The work: Helper in Southern Pacific's big R.R. shops or roundhouses... working with skilled craftsmen on locomotives, rolling stock, other R.R. equipment. You don't need to be experienced—just willing. If you wish, you can learn railroad on the ground floor... learn a fine craft from men who know their business. You'll be part of a fine outfit... a company whose biggest job still lies ahead: carrying the war load for the huge Pacific offensive. Regular railroad wages. Fine pension plan. R.R. pass privileges. Medical services. Investigate today.

Men! Think what this job can mean to you!
If you like action... like a job where there's PLENTY of work ahead... like a job that's interesting and pays good wages, look into this fine opportunity. Southern Pacific has openings for active men as Switchmen. No experience to start. We train you in a few days. Then, you'll work with an engine crew... have a locomotive to do the heavy work... switch cars loaded with war materials... keep the war trains rolling. Plenty of work ahead... S.P.'s biggest job begins when Germany's finished... carrying the tremendous war load for the push against Japan. You'll be with a fine outfit, with one of America's largest companies... and you'll work with real men. Base pay: About $240. Overtime can build that way up. Railroad pass privileges, fine pension plan, medical services. Look into this right now! Men also wanted to train for Brakemen at similar pay.
